Tour Overview

You are invited to join the Greater Twin Cities Youth Symphonies on an exciting performance tour of Argentina. Create lifelong memories as the organization embarks on its first tour to South America in twenty years.

The tour begins in Rosario, Argentina's third-largest city and situated on the Paraná River. Stroll its main streets lined with impressive neoclassical architecture.

Continue to Santa Fe and nearby Paraná. Explore Santa Fe's riverwalk and pedestrian San Martín Street.

Travel south to Buenos Aires, one of the world's most fascinating cities. Buenos Aires' cosmopolitan culture has been influenced by many different nations, particularly from Europe. Highlights will include an excursion to an Argentine ranch, a tango dinner show & tango lessons.

Join GTCYS as we share our music with Argentina while exploring its vibrant culture.

Register online for the tour before September 30 at www.musicfestivals.com!

Estimated Tour Price

$3,625 per person

$160 Argentina reciprocity fee (not included in the tour price above)
